

Quiz: Jacques' Layout
Fred Sawyer (Glastonbury CT)

We take our new quiz from a problem posed by Jacques Ozanam in the 17th century.

Given a horizontal plane with a hinged gnomon capable of being set at any angle above the horizon (similar to a Butterfield gnomon), describe how to lay out the dial face and hourlines using only straight lines and ellipses to produce a universal horizontal sundial.

Fred Sawyer
8 Sachem Drive Glastonbury CT 06033
frederick.sawyer.es.72@aya.yale.edu